RITUAL

The last Seder held at the Elk's Club was a great success. It was so nice to see so many temple friends together again. The food was excellent. We thank Micki Hirsch very much for making all the necessary arrangements. It started at 6PM and ended at 10PM. Rabbi Jaye conducted the Seder. He entertained us during the entire time not only with the story telling, but also with the schmaltzy comments as well. It was entertaining and enjoyed by all. Thank you very much to Rabbi Jaye and to his wife Laura for her participation.

Our next Shabbat morning service will be held on Saturday, May 7th at 10AM. There will be no Shabbat Eve service on May 6th. Please mark your calendar. It would be very nice to greet you at any religious service in Temple. Shabbat morning service on May 7th is the last of the season. Next morning service will be held after the High Holidays, possibly in November.

We wish you a Happy Summer and Good Health. Shabbat Eve services will continue during the summer. Shalom•

PASSOVER SEDER

I hope that everyone who attended our temple's Passover Seder had a great time. Rabbi Jaye's reading of the Haggadah was a delight. I thank him for a very enjoyable evening. The food was delicious and very plentiful. My thanks to Anne Lange for the delicious matza balls, Natalie Raw for her charosis and Shelly Lebowitz for obtaining the gefilte fish. These ladies donated the cost of those items. They never say no to me each year. Those who did not attend, I hope you had a Happy Passover.

Compliments and good thoughts, Affectionately,

Micki
